

Business Rules:

1. Items are categorized by the commodities pants, tops, jackets, shoes, and accessories.
2. Commodities are further classified, for example tops include sweatshirts, hoody's t shirts and shirts, accessories include hats sunglasses jewelry and so on.
3. Vintage items are popular brand name items that were initially purchased 20 years ago or more.
4. Quality issues on the item are assessed twice, first by the seller then by the quality assessment team before either being accepted or denied.
5. If denied the customer would be asked if they would like to donate the item.
6. Quality issues that we ask the seller include:
 - Is the stitching intact?
 - How faded is the color?
 - How old the item is?
 - Are cuffs on the sleeves or sweatpants stretched out.
7. Quality issues on the item are rated out of 5, 1 being fair and 5 being almost new.
8. Another Quality issue that is rated out of 5 is the functionality issues such as faulty zippers, missing buttons or drawstrings.
9. Once approved a customer's item is put on sale, a customer can have multiple items on sale and purchase multiple items.
10. The customer must be able to log in and view all their items on sale and in delivery transit.
11. The customer can also change their personal details and billing info from the site.
12. Customers are also asked for feedback by rating our websites rating and description of their newly purchased item.
